

BRÁITHREACHAS Phoblacht na hÉireann

The National Economic Council of State

The National Economic Council (the "National Economic Council") is instituted with the Constitution of the Republic of Ireland (the "Constitution"), proclaimed in arms at 12:04pm Irish Rising Time on Easter Monday, April 24th 1916, and established by the will and wish of the People of Ireland, on January 21st 1919;

Article X of the Constitution confers All of the National Possessions of the Republic of Ireland, the Nations Soil and all its resources, all of the wealth and all of the wealth-producing processes within the Nation State's Sovereign Territory, belong of right to all of the Citizens of the Republic of Ireland.

Article XVI of the Constitution confers The Government of the Republic shall consist of: I. A President; II. A National Legislature to be called Dáil Éireann and III. A National Economic Council.

Article XX of the Constitution confers The interests to be represented on the National Economic Council shall be: I. Agriculture, Forestry & Environment; II. Fisheries; III. Minerals & Mining; IV. Manufacturing & Distributing; V. Transport & Engineering; VI. Banking; VII. The Gaedhealtacht and VIII. Tourism, Arts & Cultural Heritage

Article XXIII of the Constitution confers The Executive Authority of the Republic shall be vested in the President of the Republic assisted by a Council of State (the "Council of State"). The Council of State shall consist of a minimum of 12 Members appointed by An Dáil and subject to the approval of the President. The Holders of Seals of Office for Defence, Justice and Finance, shall be appointed directly by An Dáil from amongst its Members. Holders of Seals of Office for Departments dealing with the Industrial and Economic life of the Country shall be put forward for inclusion in a Panel to be presented to An Dáil by the National Economic Council through its Chairman who shall be the Holder of the Seal of Office for Finance. Such Panel may include names of Citizens who are not Members of An Dáil. If appointed, such Citizens shall become Ex-Officio Members of An Dáil and all Members shall be directly responsible to An Dáil for their Departments.

BRÁITHREACHAS Phoblacht na hÉireann

Article XXV of the Constitution confers The National Economic Council shall hold no Legislative Power. The National Economic Council shall act in an advisory capacity to Dáil Éireann on all matters dealing with the Industrial Interests and the Economic Development of the Country. Any scheme which shall have the approval of two-thirds of the Members of the National Economic Council shall be considered by An Dáil.

Article XXVI of the Constitution confers The National Economic Council, by a two-thirds vote of its Members, may stay any Bill involving Social and Economic changes for a period not exceeding three months.

Article XXVII of the Constitution confers The National Economic Council, on a vote of not less than three-fourths of its Members, may demand that any such Bill, passed by An Dáil, be referred to the People for passing into Law.

And so, & Therefore: In recognition of the Constitution and the IRB
Deference of Authority to the Éire Community Councils

In Order to facilitate the implementation of the IRB & Óglaigh na hÉireann Agenda 2030 for Éire

It be in Order for the National Economic Council and the Council of State to be considered one and the same (the "National Economic Council of State") henceforth, and in the interim, to maintain the Executive Authority of the Republic, and sustain the position of An Dáil of 21st January 1919, by the Will and Wish of the People of Ireland.

By Order.

Seán Deagláin Ó Flannagáin

Óglaigh Gnóthaí Bhaile

GPO Dublin C/O The Mermaid House

Liscannor Clare V95 DKF7 Éire

Irish Republican Brotherhood

National Economic Council

Further to the Sovereign Presidents sanction of the Sovereign Seals of the Sovereign Dáil Departments, in furtherance of IRB Executive Orders 22-8-22, 4291 & 24-06-07, And in alignment with Principle 18 of the Programme of the Brotherhood & Articles XIX and XX of the Constitution of the Republic of Ireland, established by the Will of the People of Ireland, on January 21st, 1919, in accordance with the Principles of the IRB Foregoing Constitution;

The below undersigned have volunteered for, been thereafter nominated for, and seconded for by another with no objection noted, the principal positions of representation in order to formally establish the National Economic Council for Éire, this ~~30~~ day of July 2024 as follows:

Colin D. Hall for Agriculture, Forestry & Environment Colin D.L. Hall

Niall M. Murray for Fisheries Niall M. Murray

Colm M. Granahan for Minerals & Mining Colm M. Granahan

Séan G. O' Halloran for Manufacturing & Distributing Séan G. O' Halloran

Gabriel Finn for Transport & Engineering Gabriel Finn

John D. Flanagan for Banking John D. Flanagan

Barra S. de Róiste for The Gaedhealtacht Barra S. de Róiste

Eileen M. Tackney for Tourism, Arts & Cultural Heritage Eileen M. Tackney

Endorsed By:

William James McGuire as Sovereign President of the IRB & The Irish Republic

William James McGuire

M. J.

